Louisburg is the place of her nativity, and in its cemetery rests her body to await the resurrection morn.

FOURTH DAY--SABBATH.

May 7th, 1905.

The choir rendered "Come unto me and I will give you rest." Mrs. Barrow of Louisburg, organist.

The pastor, Rev. L. S. Massey preached a most able sermon from Acts 1:8—"Ye shall be witnesses unto me." His theme: The Gospel of Christ; its object; the salvation of the lost; to win the world for the Lamb that was slain. The religion that meets the needs of your life, meets the needs of all men; it will bear transportation; it is world wide; it is sweet. If man is ever to attain his true destiny he must know Christ. To know God is the real necessity. This need of man has ever voiced itself. Moses cried out "Show me thy glory;" Philip said "Lord shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us." To know God is to set the boundaries of our lives in Him. In Christ alone we not only find the redemptive scheme, but immortality. It is no wonder Christ said, "Ye shall be witnesses" exclaimed Rev. L. L. Massey, in closing this inimitable sermon.

After hymn 672, "Go ye ministers of God", the benediction was pronounced by Dr. R. A. Hardie.

Sunday afternoon Dr. R. A. Hardie gave the Bright Jewels a most instructive talk on Korea. He explained the simple alphabet used by the lower class, but the upper class prefer the more difficult Chinese characters.

Dr. Hardie told them why the Koreans always dress in white; and of many other customs. The collection of Curios was examined with interest by the children.

SABBATH NIGHT.

"Praise be to God," was the opening anthem by the Choir. Scripture reading and prayer by Dr. R. A. Hardie. The Solo, "Abide with Me," was sweetly rendered by Miss Helen Williams.

Hym 674, "On the Mountain's Top Appearing," was sung by choir and congregation.

Dr. R. A. Hardie read from Acts 26:15, 18, and Romans 2:11.

Text, Acts 26:18, "To open their eyes, and turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me."

Dr. Hardie spoke of this picture of the heathen world as Christ saw it and still sees it. Satan has turned the hearts of the people to worship him. The Koreans never forget the presence of evil spirits. The Missionaries worked forty years in China before they had ten converts.

Korea, in twenty years, numbered ten thousand converts. Nearly all their churches have been built with native funds.

After music by the choir the Benediction was pronounced by the pastor, Rev. L. S. Massey.

REPORTS.

The Committee on Finance recommend the following:

1st. That the Conference Expense Fund be continued at twenty-five cents per member.

2nd. That the expenses of the officers be paid from the Conference Expense Fund.

3rd. That the bills for the necessary blanks and the printing of the minutes be paid.

4th. That the expenses incurred by our Corresponding Secretary in attending the meeting of Woman's Board, which is to meet in Muscogee, Indian Territory, on the 24th of June, be paid from our treasury.

5th. That our pledge of $3,000, including the salaries of our two missionaries, a medical missionary for the Mary Black Memorial Hospital at Soochow, China, and the missionary at the Lucy Cunningham Home and School, Korea, be paid.

6. That our Corresponding Secretary be allowed to draw on our treasurer for sufficient funds, to meet her expenses in the interest of the work throughout the Conference.

7. That we gladly and cheerfully meet the expenses, when necessary, of our District Secretaries as they organize and strengthen the work in their districts.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

As we review the work of another year, we are made to feel profoundly grateful to our Heavenly Father for His goodness and tender mercies. Some of our co-workers have been brought very near the border land, but have been restored to their beloved families and to us. And in His boundless mercies, so many of us have been permitted to come up to this, another annual meeting, thereby receiving fresh inspiration and courage for another years work in His loved employ.

The kind smile and hearty hand shake, which greeted us on our arrival plainly showed us that we were among a people whose hearts were warm and whose homes abounded with the genuine old time hospitality. This was our first and continues our most lasting impression.

We acknowledge a pardonable pride, in the fact that our missionary candidate by her energy and consecration gives such strong evidence of successful services in the future.

The interest of our meeting was greatly increased by the presence of Dr. R. A. Hardie, Missionary from Korea. His presence and talks were helpful and inspiring. His talk to-night was certainly an incentive to higher things.

To the Pastor for courtesies shown and the choir for sweet music rendered we are profoundly grateful.

Among the very pleasant features, which the kind people of Louisburg arranged for us was an entertainment given at the College by the Bright Jewels. It was an exceedingly delightful affair. Therefore be it resolved

1st. That we look with love and grateful hearts to God who has so tenderly cared for us and blessed our meeting.

2nd. That our sincere thanks and hearty appreciation, be extended to the kind people of Louisburg who have so generously opened their hearts and homes to us.

3. That our thanks are extended to the rail roads for their kindness in allowing reductions of rates.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SECRETARIES' BOOKS.

We your Committee on Secretaries' Books, beg leave to submit the following report:

We have examined the books from the nine districts very carefully with the following results:

A majority of the books are models of neatness, and are beautifully kept. We find a few blots which can be readily removed with oxalic acid.

We recommend that the blank pages in the back of the books be ruled for the annual reports so when filled, they can be filed for history, and future reference.

We commend the Secretaries for their well kept books and accurate statements.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. B. N. MANN,
MISS LAURA POWERS.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EXTENSION OF WORK.

We, your Committee on Extension of Work, beg leave to make the following report:

Resolved 1, That we despise not the day of small things, but begin at once to deposit in some safe place, missionary offerings in the form of small contributions, to be devoted to the extension of God's work.

Resolved 2, That we recommend that each society, both adult and juvenile, have either a birth-day box for the safe keeping of birth-day offerings or a birth-day party once a year at which time there shall be an offering made from each member, and that this fund be retained in the auxiliary to meet local expenses.

Resolved 3, That a social meeting, which may be called an "Ingathering" be held in each Society once in three months, at which time each member shall, if possible, bring in a new member and that a large mite-box occupy a conspicuous place in the room, in which every member will be expected to drop, at least, a small offering. This fund to be used for local expenses or any other purpose that the society may designate, bringing it in the foreign mission work, and that the social feature may be carried out we recommend that refreshments, presumably light, be served at the Ingathering meeting.

Resolved 5. That in every auxiliary there be a committee of one appointed monthly for the purpose of reviewing the Woman's Missionary Advocate to make a synopsis therefrom of important matters, reading the same at the next monthly meeting.

Resolved 6. That we recommend that one or more members from each adult society be appointed to visit and co-operate with the L. M's of Bright Jewel Bands as far as thought advisable.

Resolved 7. That recognizing the need of more workers in the missionary cause, we recommend that every auxiliary appoint two or more members to visit the unconcerned in our churches, talk to them about our work, telling them of the good being done by our missionaries in the foreign field, and trying to interest them sufficiently for them to join our ranks.

Resolved 8. That every auxiliary secure as many honorary members as possible, not confounding these with honorary life members, but collecting from each honorary member secured $1 to be used in the local fund for defraying a delegates expenses to the annual and district meetings, and for other Missionary work.

Resolved 9. That some means be devised by which a larger number of delegates will attend the annual and district meetings that the enthusiasm and spiritual uplift derived therefrom may be communicated to a greater number of the members of auxiliaries.

Resolved 10. That a special meeting of the auxiliaries be called, for the purpose of reading the annual minutes as soon as possible after the publication of the same.

Resolved 11. That we give special heed to the 9th item of the report, and endeavor to devise some plan by which we may secure a better attendance at our annual and district meetings.

Resolved 12. We recommend that Article 7 in this report be specially emphasized.

Resolved 13. Realizing the lack of information among our societies, concerning the reports of the different committees at our annual meetings. We recommend that each auxiliary president include one of these reports in her regular monthly program until all of them are used in order that the auxiliaries become familiar with the work done at our annual session.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION.

In considering the ways and means for the increase, strength and final triumph of the cause of Missions, we deem the publication of our literature a vital factor in the growth of intelligence, which is a sure stepping stone to a higher plane of missionary life and achievement. Therefore be it

Resolved 1st, That we bear record to the merits of the Woman's Missionary Advocate and the Little Worker—they are indispensable in the work of our adult and juvenile societies, and we pledge our best endeavors in the circulation of those valuable periodicals.

2nd. That we most heartily endorse the excellence, and the daily use of the Missionary Calendars; and we suggest a careful study of the annual minutes of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions, and recommend an increase in the number of copies to be distributed among the auxiliaries.

3rd. We recommend the value, and the continued use of leaflets, and the various books suggested for the reading courses in both adult and juvenile societies, crowning the whole with a systematic study of the "Book of books."

4th. That we endorse the successful work of the Committee on Publication of Minutes, and we recommend that this Committee—Mrs. F. D. Swindell and Miss Blanche Fentress—be continued in this work, which they conduct so wisely and well.

5th. That we highly appreciate Dr. Ivey's kindness in appropriating a column in the Raleigh Christian Advocate for the use of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the N. C. Conference; and we tender our sincere thanks to Mrs. B. F. Dixon, the editor of that column, for her efficient work, and for the interesting letters and information in that column. We heartily approve of Mrs. Dixon's re-appointment.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON JUVENILE WORK.

Each year as the work grows our responsibility becomes more apparent, and we realize that the success of our Bright Jewel Department depends upon our interest and co-operation.

Therefore, resolved,

1st. That we as Auxiliaries keep the Children's work before us, co-operating in all their plans for advancement and improvement.

2nd. That we use our influence to aid all the children engaged in this work.

3rd. That we recommend Lady Managers to have Missionary entertainments for the children as a means of increasing the interest of the children and parents and adding to their Collections.

4th. That we endorse the "Little Worker" heartily and will try to increase its circulation.

5th. That we request the Societies to make more prominent the report of the Bright Jewels. That they have a place in the minutes similar to the Adult Auxiliaries.

6th. We urge the women to pledge themselves to carry out these resolutions.

Though it goes without saying that statistics are dry and the stereotyped way of reporting them is more or less monotonous; still, as all know, it is the only correct way of getting exact facts and figures, which all are interested in and all must know.

Status—The general condition of the Conference Society is good, not excellent, but better than it was last year, attributable to more general reading of Missionary literature. And the resultant information has awakened deeper interest in the hearts of some of our thinking, enquiring women.

As a Society we have met all of our obligations, and closed our year's report with quite a nice little surplus.

The treasurer will give you the exact figures. 'Tis the best financial report of all the twenty-seven years of our organization, which of course, should be, for, since progress is our motto, each year should be an improvement on its predecessor.

OUR MISSIONARIES.

We should rejoice that the salaries of our own Conference Missionaries are paid by our own offerings, and that this fact makes our Mary Pescud in her faraway home in Peracicaba, Brazil, and our Elizabeth Davis in her equally far off home in Rio, Brazil, if possible, more our Conference daughters than ever.

Salaries for our Missionaries have been the slogan of our financial campaign, while the Mary Black Hospital, proves to be the lucky watchword of the Bright Jewels. The Bright Jewels have wrought well this year. Not only have they overrun their own pledge, after paying their dues of more than seven hundred dollars, but have contributed well to the Conference expense and Missionary candidate fund. We sincerely deplore the unavoidable absence from this meeting of their Superintendent. Her heart is overflowing with joy, and she wanted so much to be here to tell about her dear Jewels.

We feel that the day has come for the Bright Jewels to pledge the support of the Medical Missionary in charge of their own Hospital in Soochow, China. They would have to increase their pledge only two hundred and fifty dollars more than they now pay.

The Superintendent of the Bright Jewels agrees with me in this opinion, and so I do recommend that the Bright Jewels shall assume the support of the Medical Missionary in charge of the Mary Black Memorial in Soochow, China, and suggest that all their pledge go for this purpose.

MISSIONARY CANDIDATE.

All the expenses of our Missionary candidate for this year at the Scarritt Bible and Training School have been paid. Miss Lamb is doing good work there, she is greatly pleased and appreciates all this Conference Society is doing for her.

Let us pray God to call some young woman from our Conference to be a Medical Missionary. What a good work for the Golden Links to assume her support, and who knows but that some Golden Link will be called of God to offer herself for this work in the foreign field.

The Week of Prayer is a holy week. May no Society miss the blessings that comes from its observance. And we recommend that as many Societies as possible, will prefer to use the first instead of the last week in November for this purpose as it will not conflict with Thanksgiving day and better still, the pastors will not be absent, as they must the last week, in attendance upon the Annual Conference. However should there be Societies that feel they must hold their meetings the last week or not at all, by all means observe that time, and do not miss the Week of Prayer. We recommend all of our Missionary publications, especially the Woman's Missionary Advocate. We are under obligations to Mrs. B. F. Dixon, our able editor of the W. F. M. column in the Raleigh Advocate, and recommend her for re-election.

The form of installation for Auxiliary officers proves to be an excellent thing, and we hope all Societies will use it. It should be used by the Bright Jewels also.

BUDS AND BLOSSOMS.

What is nicer than to start the little ones out on life's journey as members of a Foreign Missionary Society by enrolling their names and paying twenty-five cents a year until they are five years old—then they go into the Bright Jewels? All money paid for Buds and Blossoms should go in the Bright Jewel treasury.

I feel like calling the attention of our people to the subject of Bequests. Seems strange that in over a quarter of a century of existence, the W. F. M. S. of the N. C. Conference has never, that I can recall, had but one bequest and but one small donation. Will not our people, who can, remember the blessed work in a tangible way?

I recommend that this Society pledge not less than three thousand dollars this year. A part of which will go to pay the salaries of our two missionaries in the foreign field, a part of it to pay the salary of a Medical Missionary for the Children's hospital—Mary Black Memorial in Soochow, China, and a part to the support of one of the missionaries of the Lucy Cuninggim Home and School in Wonsan, Korea. Besides some other specials may be presented at the approaching annual meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions to be held in Muskogee, I. T., May 24-28.

Our Missionary candidate will be at the Training School one more year before going to the foreign field. Including traveling, it will require at least two hundred dollars to meet her expenses, and remember please, that this amount cannot be included in the pledge.

Any Conference Society is put at a disadvantage when its annual meeting is held prior to that of the Woman's Board, but since circumstances seemed to point to this date, we had to yield. Nevertheless it follows that this report is, and must remain incomplete until after the meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions. Then will be added to it, all information germane to the work.

We thank God for all the mercies that have come to us as a Society through the year just ended, and invoke greater blessings during the year now opening before us. Blessings that are sure to be ours if we meet the demand of our Lord. O, that every woman would improve her opportunity, and take active part in this Missionary propaganda. Was it not the Divine plan that for this very work we women "came into the kingdom at this time."

Let each ask herself the question, "How much owest thou my Lord?" 'Ere this year shall close, may "The women that publish the good tidings be a great host."

ADDENDUM.

The Woman's Board of Foreign Missions in annual session in Muskogee, I. T., May 24-28, did not open any new stations in the foreign field, but are to consider doing so, after consultation with, and advice from the General Board of Missions.

The Secretary reports progress. She says the work has grown remarkably everywhere. All appropriations were met, and all money borrowed has been paid back. Donations of one thousand dollars each, from a lady and a gentleman came in good time to help relieve the situation—and one man has made it possible for us to put one more missionary in the field, by offering to pay her expenses for one year, $750. O, that the Lord would call upon some more of our men and women to do this much for Him.

To our sorrow, the General Secretary had to report a decrease in membership last year of 1,848. She made an earnest call for 100,000 members for this year, 27,000 additional will bring our membership up to this. 800 members to each Conference Society will make the 100,000.

Number of Conference Societies.....	34
Number of Districts	269
Number of Adult Auxiliaries	2,483
Number of Golden Link and Juvenile Societies.....	1,262
Number of total members.....	3,745
Number of Adult Membership	45,592
Number of Members of Golden Link	27,974

The Woman's Board of Foreign Missions employ 67 Missionaries, 174 teachers and helpers; maintains 23 boarding schools, 64 day schools, 123 Bible women, 312 Scholarships with several thousand women and children under instruction.

The visiting Missionaries at the Board were Mrs. Campbell of Korea, Miss Stevens of Mexico, Miss Tarrant, of China, and Dr.

Hardie of Korea. All of them impressed themselves by their interesting talks. Missionaries accepted and recommended for appointment were Miss Elizabeth Claiborn to China, Miss Irene King to China, Miss Mattie Ivey, our first Missionary Deaconness, to Korea, Miss Cordina Irwin to Korea, and Mrs. Fannie Brown to Brazil, Miss Jennie Stradley goes to Brazil as a Missionary teacher. Miss Ivey will probably go to the Lucy Cuninggim School in Wonsan, Korea, and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the North Carolina Conference will assume her support. All the requests of our Conference Society were granted by the Board.

Our requests were: The privilege of supporting one of the missionaries at the Lucy Cuninggim School in Korea. That the Mary Black Hospital in China be re-opened as soon as possible, and that Dr. Annie Fearn be put in charge of the same, and kept there until there is a medical Missionary ready for the place. That the Bright Jewels of the N. C. Conference pay Dr. Fearn's expenses, $750.

The work of our Conference Society this year is to raise our pledge of $3,000 to pay the expenses of four missionaries on the foreign fields, namely: Miss Mary Pescud in Brazil, Miss Elizabeth Davis in Brazil, Dr. Annie Fearn in China, and one of the Missionaries of the Lucy Cuninggim School in Korea. Besides the pledge, we must raise two hundred dollars for our Missionary candidate, Miss Lamb, at the Training School, our Conference expense fund, and our regular dues, also scholarships by those societies who have established them.

Any Societies who wish to have new Scholarships, I advise that they take them in the Lucy Cuninggim School in Wonsan, Korea, or in Brazil. Always apply for Scholarship through the Conference Corresponding Secretary. All leaflets dispensed with and bulletins will take their place.

Your Conference Secretary has pledged 800 new members this year and she is depending upon you to help her meet that pledge. How many new members will each of you promise? Will you use your influence to organize a Golden Link Society in your church, should there not be one?

At our annual meeting in Louisburg, an attempt was made to form a circle of thirty, who would pay $25 each. The whole amount $750 to be used in supporting one of the four missionaries we have pledged to support. While a number joined the circle, it is not complete yet, and if any of you will pay $25 please send name to Mrs. B. F. Dixon, Raleigh, N. C., and the money, either all at once, or in installments, to Miss Mary Page, Aberdeen, N. C. Miss Page is our new Conference Treasurer. O, that some of our churches, yes even some of our Societies would support a Missionary alone. What a blessing would be theirs. When the fact confronts us that only one fourth of the world has heard the gospel of Christ we should bend all our energies to aid Foreign Missions.

The Woman's Board of Missions raised nearly one hundred and sixty thousand dollars this year. The total collections in our Conference were over six thousand dollars.

The next annual meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions will be in Opelika, Ala., and the next annual meeting of the W. F. M. S. of the N. C. Conference will be in Warrenton, N. C.

We hope that each Society will meet the assessment of its District Secretary including the Bright Jewels who will gladly provide for their own Missionary Physician in charge of the Mary Black Hospital, and also meet the other obligations.

Forbid dear Lord that we should falter,
At the threshold of our King;
Even our lives upon thine altar,
Is not too much for us to bring.
O help us this sacrifice to make
With willing hearts for the Saviour's sake.

Respectfully submitted,

SUE D. SWINDELL,

Corresponding Secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the North Carolina Conference.

ANNUAL REPORT OF JUVENILE WORK, YEAR ENDING MARCH 1ST, 1905.

The swiftly passing days, weeks and months have brought us again to the time, when the work of the year must be reviewed, its progress noted, its mistakes remedied, and plans adopted for the coming year. It is most gratifying to know, that our "Juvenile Work" has taken quite an advanced step forward, and many indications point to a renewed interest, and a higher appreciation of the importance and far reaching results of the children's work for missions. The following is the statistical report for the year.

Number of Bands added.....	4
Total Number of Bands.....	51
Number of members added.....	385
Total number of members.....	1,840
Number of Life members.....	18
Subscribers to Little Worker.....	430
Dues	$ 741.28
Conference Expense	7.50
Pledge	457.90
University Candidate.....	16.20
	$1,222.88

From this, it will be seen, that there has been a gain of $218.83 over amount collected last year and an addition of 385 members. As is our custom two banners were offered, one to the Band raising the largest amount and another to the one having the largest addition of Members. *Both these Banners have been won by Rocky Mount, that Band having paid $85.71 and added 30 members. Centenary Church, New Bern, comes next, having paid $75.72 and added 20 members. Of this amount $46.85 was for pledge, the largest amount raised by one Band for that purpose. There are two suggestions I would make to Lady Managers, as a means of improving on the work of last year. 1st. To see that Dues reported is in proportion to number of members. In many of the reports I find great discrepancy here. 2nd. To collect as nearly as possible 10 cents per year from each member for Conference Expense. Most of the Bands fail to report anything for this purpose, and others, very small amounts. This should not be, for our Juvenile Societies should take pleasure in bearing our portion of the expense for Annual Meetings. As special work for the coming year, I would suggest that we pledge ourselves to pay the salary of a medical missionary to "Mary Black Memorial" at Soochow, China. For lack of funds they had no missionary last year and the hospital was closed. I feel quite sure that the children can, and will, measure up to this increased amount for their Pledge, and it will be in the line of the work they have been doing there, since the death of "Aunt Mary." I am not informed as to the exact amount necessary, but have no doubt the information can be obtained from our Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Swindell. But while I would urge the children to greater effort, I would plead with the ladies of our Auxiliaries to give them earnest co-operation and willing help. Our chief hope lies in the children, that they may be trained to feel their individual responsibility in this work of Foreign Missions and be more efficient and intelligent workers than we of this generation. And nothing has a greater tendency to awaken enthusiasm, and to incite to zealous effort than to see older ones extending sympathy and aid to their little efforts. Let us earnestly try to impress upon them the pitiful condition of children in heathen lands, as contrasted with their own happy lots and then show them the best way to bring these unfortunate ones into the Light of the "Sun of Righteousness." They should be taught how the Gospel of Christ will improve their unhappy conditions. That though the founding of Churches, schools, and hospitals shall relieve their needs and uplift their lives, yet this is not the final end of missions. As some one has aptly said. "Every such institution, valuable as it is is a means of making known the Christian message and interpreting it, and applying it to suit the varied needs of human life. The final purpose of missions is to send everywhere the message of love, embodied in the Incarnation of our Lord and the message of life embodied in His resurrection. Wherever this Gospel is known and accepted a determined effort is made to end injustice and cruelty, to relieve pain and to banish ignorance. Hope returns to otherwise hopeless people and the whole face of life is changed."

*After the report was written 'twas ascertained that Elizabeth City Bright Jewel Band had the largest addition of members, and hence won one of the Banners.

My sisters, our responsibility in this matter is great. May God help us to measure up to it!

Respectfully submitted by

MRS. L. M. HENDREN,
Supt. and Treas. of Juvenile Work.

Washington is the Banner District.

Respectfully submitted, MRS. L. M. HENDREN,
Superintendent Juvenile Work.

CONFERENCE SOCIETIES.

A Conference Society should be formed by the election of a President, Vice-President, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, and a Secretary for each district.

These shall be appointed in the first instance by the Annual Conference, or a Convention called for the purpose of organizing, and elected thereafter at the annual meetings by ballot. After organization, a Conference Society shall consist of the officers named above and a delegate from each Society.

By-Laws.

Section 1. The executive officers shall constitute a committee to transact business in the intervals of the annual meetings. Three shall constitute a quorum. A reserve shall be elected at the annual session of the Conference Society to attend the meetings of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions in the absence of the Corresponding Secretary. In all cases care must be taken to send the reserve properly accredited. The duties of the reserve shall cease upon the adjournment of the Board. If neither the Corresponding Secretary nor the reserve-elect can attend, some one may be appointed by the President and Corresponding Secretary.

Sec. 2. The President (or Vice-President) shall preside at all meetings of the Conference Society and of the Executive Committee. The President shall countersign all drafts on the treasury for necessary Conference expenses.

Sec. 3. The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Society with the Auxiliaries, and shall herself (or through the District Secretary, as she may direct) supply them with such missionary matter as she may obtain for gratuitous distribution. It shall be her duty to use all practicable means for the organization of Auxiliaries, and forward promptly reports of organization and number of members to the Corresponding Secretary of the Board. She must send promptly quarterly reports to the Secretary on the 20th of June, September, December and March; also an annual report, giving all statistics in full the last quarter preceding the annual meeting of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions. She shall sign all drafts on the treasury.

Sec. 4. The Recording Secretary shall give notice of all meetings of the Conference Society and of the Executive Committee, and keep the minutes of the same on record.

Sec. 5. The Treasurer shall receive and keep on deposit all funds of the Society, keeping an account with each Auxiliary, and submitting the same annually to the Auditor. She must send reports promptly on the 20th of June, September, December, and March to the Treasurer of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions, therewith transmitting all the funds in the treasury. She must keep an account of the expenses of the Conference Society and send the same, with her quarterly report, to the Treasurer. An itemized copy of said reports must be furnished the Conference Corresponding Secretary.

Sec. 6. The District Secretary shall organize Auxiliaries and use every available means to promote the advancement of the Woman's Foreign Mission Society in her district. She (or a representative appointed by her) shall present a report of the work at the District Conference, and shall hold an annual meeting in the district (composed of delegates from Auxiliaries) and an all-day meeting whenever practicable. If the Conference Corresponding Secretary so direct, the District Secretary shall conduct the correspondence with Auxiliaries, and send a quarterly report to the Conference Corresponding Secretary, and a copy of the same to the President of the Conference Society. It shall be her duty to do all in her power to obtain subscribers to the "Woman's Missionary Advocate," and see to the collection of the contingent fund for Conference expenses.

Sec. 7. Conference and Auxiliary Societies shall not project new work in the mission fields.

Sec. 8. Conference Societies shall provide a contingent fund for defraying necessary expenses, which, if sufficient, may be supplemented from the treasury.

Sec. 9. The regular dues of the Auxiliary Societies, adult and juvenile, also funds contributed to make life members, honorary members, and life patrons, shall not be devoted to specific work.

Sec. 10. The payment of twenty dollars constitutes a person a life member of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South; but for convenience the membership will always be held in the Auxiliary into which the money was paid. As all payments are voluntary, life members cannot be compelled to pay dues, and yet by action of the Board in annual session it was decided that the dues in an Auxiliary—ten cents a month and the contingent fee provided for necessary expenses should be paid by all who are members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

Sec. 11. The funds, outside of dues collected within the Auxiliaries to the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, adult or Juvenile, shall not be directed to any specific work, without obtaining the consent of the Woman's Board, and with the understanding that such work is in accordance with the plans of this Board.

Sec. 12. The sum paid for a life membership ($20) shall go into the general fund to send out missionaries, to sustain the work already projected, and to extend it. Such money cannot be used for Bible women, scholarships, or any special. Mite-box collections and thank offerings may be used to make life members, provided they are not reported twice—that is, as life membership and thank offering.

Sec. 13. Mite-box collections and thank offerings during the Week of Prayer are in all cases to be used to increase the general fund unless permission be granted by the Board to apply such funds to special work.

Sec. 14. Pledges taken by Conference Corresponding Secretaries at annual sessions of the Woman's Board must be devoted to the general fund, and cannot include Bible women, scholarships, or any other special, unless allowed by the Board.

Sec. 15. That the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions accord to the Conference Societies the privilege and right to manage their internal affairs as may best suit the needs of each Conference Society, always acting with reference to and in harmony with the constitution and by-laws given them.

Sec. 16. Credit shall not be given nor vouchers accepted by the treasurer of the Woman's Board for funds that have not been paid into the treasury of the same.

Sec. 17. If during the year an office becomes vacant by death, resignation, or removal, the Executive Committee shall fill the vacancy.

Sec. 18. In those Conference Societies where the number of delegates to the annual meeting is so large that their entertainment has become burdensome and expensive, the Society is accorded the privilege of arranging its own basis of representation.

AUXILIARY SOCIETIES.

Any number of women may form an auxiliary to the Conference Society in any charge or circuit, by appointing a President, two or more Vice-Presidents, a Corresponding Secretary, a Recording Secretary and a Treasurer; these constituting a Local Executive Committee. Auxiliary Societies shall report to the Corresponding Secretary of the Board until Conference Societies may be formed in the Annual Conference where they are located.

How to Organize Auxiliary Societies.

Whenever any number of ladies can be convened for the purpose, let the work be brought before them by the pastor or some lady, urging the claims of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society; then organize by appointing a chairman and secretary pro tem.

Let one or more ladies pass around with slips of paper to secure members. The chairman shall then call for a nominating committee, preliminary to the election of officers. When the report of the nominating committee is adopted the officers are elected.

The constitution and by-laws provided for auxiliaries should then be read and adopted. The time for holding the monthly meetings may be determined, and subscribers obtained for the Woman's Missionary Advocate.

As soon as organized the Corresponding Secretary of the auxiliary shall fill a blank report of organization and forward to the Conference Corresponding Secretary.

MANUAL FOR MISSIONARY CANDIDATES AND FOR MISSIONARIES.

This manual is intended for those who desire to engage in missionary work under the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions, Methodist Episcopal Church, South. It is intended to serve instead of so many written and verbal inquiries, and it is presumed that candidates and missionaries will carefully read its contents.

Qualifications.

The same general qualifications are requisite which are considered conditions of success at home: a sound physical constitution; intellectual ability; practical experience; adaptation to all circumstances and to persons of all classes; a cheerful, hopeful spirit; persistent energy in carrying out the plans of the Board—all controlled by a singleness of purpose and devotion to the cause of Christ. Facility in acquiring a foreign tongue is a valuable qualification, also a practical knowledge of domestic work is almost a necessity.

Requirements of Missionary Candidates.

1. The papers of a missionary candidate must be presented first to the Corresponding Secretary of the Conference Society in which she resides, in time to be forwarded to the Corresponding Secretary of the Board not less than three months before the annual meeting of the Woman's Board. The Conference Executive Committee must seek a personal acquaintance with the candidate, and know something of her character and history, before her papers are forwarded to the Secretary of the Board.

2. The papers must be references from the pastor and Sunday school superintendent of the Church in which the candidate holds her membership; from the president of the college where she was educated, and where she has taught; also from persons who have had good opportunities for knowing the candidate, her acquirements, capabilities and Christian character. The candidate herself must write her application to the Board, giving a brief history of her life; telling her age, place of residence, where educated, for whom and where she has taught, her religious experience and motives for wishing to enter missionary service. She should state particularly whether she has a sound constitution, and the condition of her health at the time; also any facts about herself which might prevent her acceptance.

3. She must furnish a health certificate from a competent physician, and must answer satisfactorily the questions under that head. It is important that she be examined by a specialist for the ear, eye, throat and lungs; and also secure a certificate from him of the soundness of these organs.

4. In the case of a medical missionary, in addition to the usual testimonials, she must secure certificates from the professors of the medical college in which she has taken the course.

5. Whereas the value of our training school has been demonstrated in testing as well as training candidates for foreign missionary work; therefore,

Resolved, That hereafter all missionary candidates, unless they be exceptionally qualified by practical experience as Christian workers or teachers, be required to take the course of study prescribed in the Scarritt Bible and Training School before acceptance by the Board.

6. The age of the candidate must not be less than twenty-five years nor more than thirty-five. Superior qualifications and circumstances may justify a deviation from this rule.

7. The testimonials of a missionary candidate may be summed up as follows: "Health, education, capabilities for teaching, executive and financial ability, with a general fitness for the work, and a consecrated purpose. These are essential qualities in mission work.

8. No candidate will be accepted unless she will promise to give five years of service to the Woman's Board from the time she reaches the field, unless her health should fail. She must sign an agreement to this effect: "If I voluntarily leave the service of the Board for any other cause than ill health before the expiration of five years, I promise to refund to the Board the amount paid for my outfit and travelling expenses." This does not imply that her obligation for service ceases at the end of five years, but that she is bound for this length of time to refund the amount of outfit and travel if she leave the work before the time expires. She must give six months' notice to the Board of her intention to leave the work, or forfeit her salary for that length of time.

9. Her preferences for a field will be considered, but it is expected that she will acquiesce in the decision and judgment of the Board.

10. Every candidate is required to come before either the committee in Nashville or before the Woman's Board in annual session.

11. If a candidate has been accepted or recommended for acceptance by the committee in Nashville, it is not necessary for her papers to come before the Committee on Missionary Candidates at the annual meeting.

12. After her acceptance the candidate must consider herself under the guidance of the Board in the interim of her departure for her appointed field.

13. The travelling expenses of a candidate are paid from her home to the mission field. A sufficient sum is granted for her personal outfit. Her salary does not begin until she reaches her field of labor. The salary of a missionary is not to be regarded in any sense as compensation for labor performed, nor is it graded to suit the different abilities of the individuals, as in the ordinary business occupations of life. The amount received by the missionary is supposed to be what is necessary for her support while in the field. Compensation for this service will be found in the privilege of teaching the truth as it is in Christ to the Gentiles.

ABSTRACT FROM BISHOP'S ADDRESS TO GENERAL CONFERENCE, MAY, 1898.

It would be unjust to our Church not to mention in this connection the admirable service our godly women are rendering. They are not men, and do not seek to be, but are what God intended them: helpmeets for men—just as meet in the Church as in the family, and just as valuable, not to say indispensable. The Woman's Board of Foreign Missions is now just twenty years old. Already they have fifty missionaries in the foreign field, and one hundred and thirty-two native helpers and teachers, and thirty-seven Bible women, making a total force of two hundred and nineteen; while the General Board has one hundred and four missionaries, eighty-nine native travelling preachers, and one hundred and two native helpers, a total of two hundred and ninety-five workers—a force eighty-four more in numbers than theirs, a comparative result most favorable to the women, both in industry and financial skill, when the time of operation and available resources are considered. Within twenty years they have raised $1,214,321.75, of which $307,800.01 has been secured this quadrennium. Mrs. D. H. McGavock, the faithful and efficient General Secretary of this Society from its organization, passed to her reward December 23, 1895.

The Scarritt Bible and Training School.

As a part of their work should be mentioned the Scarritt Bible and Training School for Missionaries and other Christian Workers, which has demonstrated the need and wisdom of its creation, to train for both the foreign and home fields the young women of our Church. Its graduates and representatives are now in our several mission fields, and the demand for such trained workers is constantly increasing. The trained nurses from its wards, after two years' instruction and clinical experience, take with them the needed skill in ministering at the bedside, while the Christian atmosphere of the institution prepares them to become Christian workers no less than trained nurses. There has been a gratifying increase both in the endowment and attendance of students.
